

Walk on in to get your free condoms

What is it?

'Walk on in' is a condom card scheme for under 25 year olds living, working or studying in Luton. You can get a card which entitles you to sexual health advice and free condoms.

How does it work?

You can register for a card at different sites across Luton. All you have to do is give your initials, date of birth, gender, ethnicity and the first part of your postcode – that's it!

Where do you register & get condoms from?

Cards and condoms are available from a number of young people friendly sites across Luton – turn over for a full list of venues.
